Come Woofy, come _____ me.

Woofy what are you doing _____ that bush.

Woofy don't put everything _____ your mouth.

Woofy, come here. Sit _____ my lap.

Woofy, come sit _____ me.

Be a good boy, Woofy! You should not pick up anything. I say it because I care _____ you. Come let's go now.

Let's Apply It

Read the article from the newspaper. Underline the words that can be shortened and write the short forms over them.

HOW'S THE WEATHER?

Today, the weather is not what you would have thought. Dark clouds are hanging in the sky. We do not know whether there will be thunder and hail, but it is certain that it will rain. Do not go out without your raincoat and umbrella. You are surely going to get drenched!

Children, you will not be able to play outside. It is time to read!

We are on the job to keep you updated. You will be safe if you follow the safety instructions.

- The Weatherman.

Short forms are used mostly while speaking or while writing dialogues. We do not use them in formal writing.
